

Modal Verbs 1

Grammar Grammar Grammar

MUST – shows the necessity, obligation and prohibition.

EX : - You must not do it !

EX : - We must leave now !

SHOULD – Is used to show advice and obligation.

EX : - You should walk carefully as the roads are slippery.

EX : - You should close the tap water to avoid wasting water.

WILL / WOULD – Is used to show a wish, prediction, request, demand, order, assumption and promise.

EX : - Will you please keep quiet ? - Would you please give me the butter ?

Modal Verbs 2

Grammar Grammar Grammar

CAN – Is used to show permission, possibility and ability.

EX : -Can I leave early today ?

EX : -Linda can speak English fluently.

COULD – Is used to represent a suggestion, request, permission, future possibility and ability in the past.

EX : -Could we go out for a movie ?

EX : -Mary gave up her dreams in order to marry him.

Modal Verbs 3

Grammar Grammar Grammar

MAY – Is used to ask permission and to show future possibility.

EX : -May I have a cup of tea ?

EX : -India may become a developed country by 2025.

MIGHT – Is used to show present and future possibility.

EX : -I have a coupon of Leclerc, that might offer a discount of 10% after showing them at the counter.

EX : -Mr Smith might be sleeping now, let's not disturb him !